Europe at War: The Russian Invasion of Ukraine

March 18, 2022

Myroslava Mudrak, Ph.D.

Professor Emeritus, Department of History of Art, The Ohio State University

OSU_ARTHISTORY

Myroslava Maria Mudrak, Ph.D., specializes in the field of modernist art of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Her scholarly interests focus on Eastern Europe, Ukraine, Russia and the former Soviet Union in relation to the philosophical and stylistic developments of the West.

For more than three decades, she taught at The Ohio State University, and lectured on the ideological discourses, socio-political influences, and artistic practice within East European cultures that use modernity to signify national identity.

She received her Bachelor's Degree from Case Western Reserve University, her Master's Degree from Columbia University, and her Ph.D. from the University of Texas. In 2020, Mudrak was elected as a Foreign Member to the National Academy of Arts of Ukraine.
