Susan Tave Zelman, Ph.D.

Former Ohio Superintendent of Public Instruction and Author

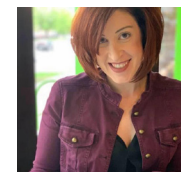

Susan Tave Zelman started her career as a high school social studies teacher in the NYC public schools. For 14 years, she was an associate professor of education at Emmanuel College, part of that time serving as the Chair of the Department of Education simultaneously holding research appointments at Harvard University Graduate School of Education and Columbia University Teachers College.

Zelman left her academic career to enter state government where she held high level Education appointments in Massachusetts, Missouri, and ultimately Ohio.

Following her time in state government, she served as Senior Vice President for Education and Children's Programming at the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

Currently she is a consultant to education technology firms on a variety of education issues. Her first book, The Buying and Selling of American Education: Reimagining a System of Schools for All Children, was published in December 2022.

Zelman received her Bachelor's Degree from Hunter College, her Ph.D. at the University of Michigan, and holds three honorary degrees from Youngstown State University, Baldwin-Wallace, and the University of Rio Grande.

Jackie Walker

Executive Director, SkillsUSA Ohio

Jackie Walker started her time at SkillsUSA Ohio in a contract position and was ultimately promoted to Assistant State Director and then Executive Director 2018. SkillsUSA Ohio is a not-for-profit association of 400,000 member students and educators partnering with business and industry to ensure that America has a globally competitive skilled workforce.

Before her time with SkillsUSA Ohio, Walker served as a nurse at Good Samaritan Hospital in Dayton and West Chester Hospital.

Walker holds a Bachelor's Degree in Nursing from Wright State University and a Master's Degree in Nursing Leadership and Management Systems from Drexel University.

Angela Chapman, Ed.D.

Superintendent/CEO, Columbus City Schools

Angela Chapman was appointed Superintendent/CEO of Columbus City Schools in May 2023. Chapman joined CCS in 2019 as the Chief of Transformation and Leadership, where she served on the Superintendent's Cabinet in charge of principal leadership and the regional support of school communities.

She also led the implementation of a new regional model that divided the District into six distinct regions, each led by an Area Superintendent, to provide an intentional focus on school leadership development and targeted regional support.

Prior to CCS, she served in various administrative roles in the District of Columbia Public, Massillon, Nashville, Cleveland Heights and University Heights, and Euclid. She began her career in education as an elementary school teacher in the Cleveland Heights-University Heights City School District.

Chapman holds a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education from the University of Akron, a Master's Degree in Curriculum and Instruction from Ashland University, and an Ed.D. from Tennessee State University.

Scott DiMauro

President, Ohio Education Association

Scott DiMauro, was elected President of the OEA in 2019 after having served as vice president for six years. Prior to becoming a full-time OEA officer, DiMauro served as President of Central OEA/NEA.

As vice president, DiMauro served as co-chair of the Healthcare and Pension Advocates for STRS and represented OEA's 122,000 members on a variety of coalition boards and steering committees. He chaired the OEA Legislative Committee and continues to work with OEA's Government Relations staff to represent educators in the legislature and State Board of Education.

He started his career a high school social studies teacher at Worthington Schools.

DiMauro received his Bachelor's Degree in Political Science and Social Studies Education from Miami University and his Master's Degree from The Ohio State University.
